

HISTORICAL SCAVENGER HUNT OF INWOOD

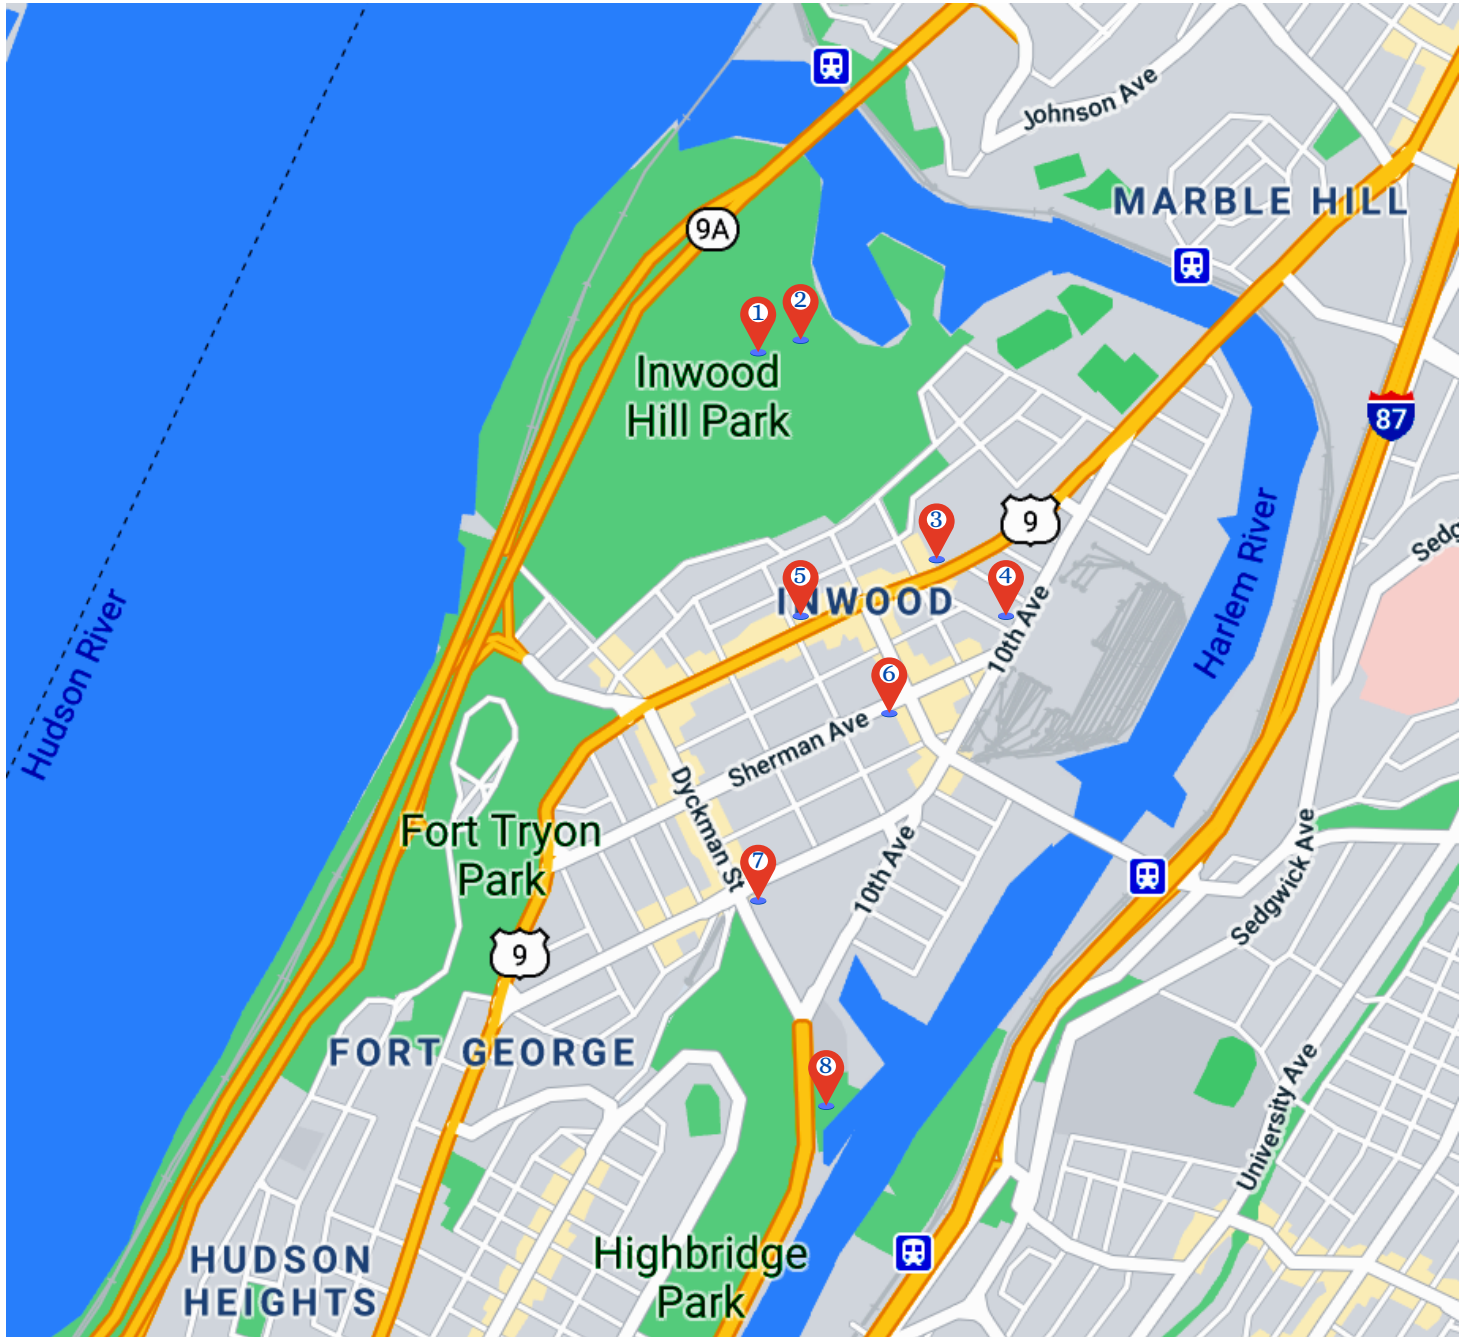

DIRECTIONS:

TAKE a picture at each location or DRAW these places as they appear today or how you think they once looked.

POST to social media

TAG us and use hashtag #InwoodJaneWalk

Google Maps 2020

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 These tumbled rocks from a glacial retreat over 30,000 years ago served as shelter to the Lenape. | 5 Built in 1784 by an Inwood family, this building is the oldest of its kind left on Manhattan island. |
| 2 This is the location where the Dutch supposedly purchased Manhattan from the Lenape. | 6 Now a thrift store, this was once a place for books, one of its many locations started by Eliza Hamilton. |
| 3 Embedded in the wall, this was one of many made in 1769 to measure the distance to City Hall. | 7 This was once the location of this sports venue, home to the first U.S. Latino team, the NY Cubans. |
| 4 One of many locations seeking recognition, this resting place was discovered & destroyed in 1903. | 8 Now a garden maintained by local schools, this spot once served as a communal dumping ground. |